FORD HOUSE I.D.E.A.

Guided by Eleanor's and Edsel's shared love of Detroit and its people, art and culture, and of the greater good, Ford House is committed to serving the public. Everyone is welcome.

INCLUSION Ford House ensures that our interns, staff, and volunteers demonstrate cultural sensitivity and competence. Our community events, programs, and tours aim to reflect and respond to diverse cultures, interests, and to the needs of our regional communities.

DIVERSITY Ford House prioritizes diversity across all dimensions, including our vision, mission, strategic goals, leadership structure, audiences, community partners, programs, vendors, and staff to uplift us all. Embracing difference make us better colleagues, employers, employees, friends, leaders, learners, researchers, students, teachers and citizens.

EQUITY Ford House is committed to challenge, respond to, and rectify habits and traditions of bias, harassment, and discrimination, and to develop a reputation for inclusion, warmth, and hospitality. We prioritize equity across all dimensions of our organization through our staffing, selection of vendors, variety of partners, outreach, and access to programs and events.

ACCESSIBILITY Ford House ensures that our interns, staff, and volunteers demonstrate cultural competence, and that our programs and tours reflect and respond to diverse cultures, interests, and needs of our regional communities. We strive to provide fair accessibility to programs, resources, and assets, and ensure equitable experiences for all interns, staff, volunteers, and the public we serve.

FORD HOUSE

EDSEL & ELEANOR